POLICIES:

All applications must be submitted with payment in full in order to secure reservation. No refunds will be granted after September 1, 2010.

Each booth will be provided with one 8' table. Table coverings will not be included. If you need electricity provided to your booth, please let us know by checking this box: There is no additional charge.

If you are applying to have your materials included in the fellowship packet, please provide with your application one copy of each piece you wish to be included (or comparable piece if not yet printed). 500 copies of each piece must be shipped to NIFB by Wednesday, September 1, 2010. Materials arriving after this date are not guaranteed to be included in the fellowship packet.

Set-up of displays can be completed from 10:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Monday, October 4. Dismantling must be completed by noon on Thursday, October 7. The exhibit areas will be open after the close of the morning sessions until the evening sessions begin, and until ninety minutes after the evening sessions. Manning your booth is at your discretion.

All Bibles sold, promoted, or ordered in the exhibit space must be the King James Version. Nationwide reserves the right to restrict exhibitors at the discretion of the moderators and/or secretary-treasurer.

"I, the undersigned, understand and will comply with the above policies."
